

Jeraldyne's School of the Dance

TOGETHER AGAIN!

Jeraldyne's School of the dance is beginning again. Welcome to our 2010-2011 training season! We have been very busy with preparations for the fast approaching year. Before we begin our new year, we would like to send our gratitude to the Staff at Omega Baptist Church who so graciously made a place for us in their facility as we transitioned to our current space. Faith is built on the wings of angels! Thank you for being our angel during the transition to our current space. Yes we have moved!!!! We are TOGETHER AGAIN with the Dayton Contemporary Dance Company (DCDC.) Our New home is located with DCDC at 840 Germantown Street, Dayton, OH 45402.

We are growing and with growth always comes change. In this packet is everything you'll need to be prepared for the upcoming year. We heard your request and in turn have outlined in greater detail our policies on communication, uniforms, tardiness, absences, school demonstrations and the return of our periodic newsletter. We are sure that this packet will walk you through our policy's step by step and leave you with a clear understanding of what you can expect from us, as well as what we expect from you. If there are further questions do not hesitate to call our new number (937) 223 -5312. Someone will be available to answer your calls during registration hours and regular business hours.

Enclosed you will find a schedule of classes, detailed class descriptions, tuition cost, updated contact information and our address. If you are registering for classes please fill out the enclosed registration form and mail it with either a check or money order to Jeraldyne's School of the Dance to our new mailing address listed below. We are excited about seeing both new and returning during our upcoming registration. Thank you for considering the Jeraldyne's School of the Dance. See You at the Studio!!!

Class Descriptions

ALL level placements will be designated by the teaching staff of Jeraldynne's School of the Dance. Courses may be requested by the client/student but will only be accepted upon the approval of the programming director ONLY. Please note that class placement is adjudicated by many factors. They include but are not limited to experience, perceived talent, dedication to the programming, willingness to learn and execution of dance vocabulary. JSD reserves the right to promote or demote a student's placement at our discretion.

Creative Movement I	The introductory class for young dancers emphasizing body awareness through movement. Requirement: Level I 3yrs old with parent/Guardian participation required.
Creative Movement II	The introductory class for young dancers emphasizing body awareness through movement. Requirement: Level I 4yrs old
Children's Dance	As a pre-requisite to classical ballet, this class serves as the transitional course into the codified practice of dance. It helps to prepare young dancers for the technical aspects of ballet and modern dance. Requirement: 5 and 6 yrs old
Pre –Ballet	The First step after the Children's Dance course or a great beginning course for dancers ages 7 - 9. The Student will broaden their dance vocabulary and technique of classical ballet. Focus on body alignment at the ballet barre and center practice are key. Requirement: 7 – 9yrs old
Ballet I, II, III	Classes stress the fundamentals of ballet technique emphasizing progression, body placement, physical line and musicality. Requirement: 9 years old or older. With a prerequisite of pre – ballet. Level placement is at the instructor's discretion
Modern I, II, III	Classes are based in the Horton dance technique with emphasis on symmetrical movement evolving from the center of the body and floor work. Requirement: at least 9 years old with enrolment in ballet. Level placement the same as your enrolled ballet level.
Jazz I, II, III	Classes are a combination of various dance techniques that fuse street jazz and hip hop styles creating an innovative and unique movement vocabulary. Requirement: at least 9 years old
Youth African	This class explores the richness of African dance from Mali and Senegal. Dancers will experience the communal spirit of African dance through song, rhythm and movement. Requirement: at least 9 years old
Adult African	This class explores the richness of African dance from Mali and Senegal. Students will learn traditional rhythms, song and movement that welcome the dancer to experience Requirement: 18 years and better
Teen Moves	This is a non-intimidating course for those who are interested in a fun and light hearted approach to learning dance. Great for students beginning in the teen years ; this class covers jazz dance, modern dance and ballet on a rotating schedule. Requirement: 13 years and older with little to no movement experience. For a more enhance experience, teen moves should consider participation in the youth African class as well.

UNIFORM AND APPEARANCE POLICY

REGARDING UNIFORM

Every student attending Jeraldynne's School of the Dance must be in the appropriate uniform for their class level. Ballet Skirts are not allowed in regular classes. They may only be worn during the School Demonstration Performances. Your individual class Uniform will serve as the costume for ANY School Demonstration OR performance.

REGARDING HAIR

Hair must be in a bun for all classes. This means neatly secured with the use of a hairnet and bobby pins. Bangs and loose hair will not be permitted. The use of scarves and "do-rags" is not allowed. Other styles have proven to be a distraction and a hindrance to the learning environment.

REGARDING DANCE UNDERGARMENTS

Ordinary day to day undergarments are not permitted beneath your JSD uniform. This is for both aesthetic and sanitary reasons. Please utilize your local dance store or your choice of dance catalogue to purchase any needed Dance undergarments. Any dance undergarments worn must be skin toned or black.

REGARDING TOE NAIL POLISH

Toe nail polish is not permitted at any time. It may leave blemishes on the studio dance floor.

REGARDING HYGIENE

All participants must conform to reasonable hygiene practices. Please begin each dance day with a reasonably clean body and a clean/washed uniform. For students taking classes on repeat days it is mandatory that you wash your uniform before participation in your next scheduled class day.

REGARDING JEWELRY

Jewelry is not permitted in the dance studio for a number of reasons. Below is a list of items that may not be worn. This list is just a sampling. Instructors may choose other items that are not acceptable at their own discretion.

Necklaces, Bracelets, Rings, Toe-Rings, Nose –Rings, Body piercings, Dangling earrings, watches

Agreement:

1. Registration:

The non-refundable registration fee of $30 and the first session's tuition is to be paid at the time of registration. Registration also assumes that you have read and accepted the policies listed below. Please initial each policy individually.

2. Jeraldyn's School of the Dance Tuition and Payment Policy:

The J.S. of D. school year goes from September 13, 2010 until June 5, 2010. Your class fee will be due on the first day of each new session. Please Note: After the first 7 business days of each session, your payment will be considered late and a $20.00 late fee will be assessed. In addition a $30.00 fee for any returned checks. For your convenience, tuition payments can be mailed to avoid any late fees. If a student's tuition becomes more than 30 days overdue, that student will be excused from JSD classes, pending a resolution.

Mailing address:
Jeraldyn's School of the Dance
804 Germantown Street
Dayton, OH 45402

3. Refunds/ Early Withdraw Policy:

All Sessions will be paid in advanced. NO REFUNDS will be given for tuition or fees remitted. In the unlikely event that a student needs to withdraw early, the person financially responsible must notify JSD to close the account and thus, prevent further billing. Students are billed according to their status on our roster (enrolled or withdrawn). To avoid billing you must supply a written formal notice of withdraw. All associated fees and payments will be assessed and collected until the official day of withdraw for any portion of a session that a student is officially enrolled. A student's absenteeism does not affect tuition payments owed to JSD. In addition, tuition and fees will not be rolled into the next session of classes.

4. Class Placements:

The JSD faculty will make all class level placements. New students (with previous training) are required to participate in a placement class prior to official placement to ensure the best and most appropriate course levels.

5. Training Policy:

Any student enrolled in Modern dance classes at JSD is required to be registered for and attending Ballet classes at their appropriate level.

6. Uniform Policy:

Any student who is not in the proper uniform will NOT be admitted to classes under any circumstances. This includes adhering to JSD’s uniform and appearance policy in its entirety. The uniform Policy is given in your student information packet at the time of registration.

7. Tardiness Policy:

Any student entering class more than 10 minutes late must sit out the remainder of the class time and take notes on the class that is already going on. A written warning on tardiness will be given to notify the parent of the number of offenses. Upon the third offense a parent meeting will be held to discuss the issues concerning tardiness so that it may be resolved. Please note that being tardy disrupts the learning environment and distracts the instructor from the other paying patrons.

8. Absenteeism:

A parent or Guardian must call the JSD office prior to absences. Each absence will be documented as such. After 2 absences with no communication the JSD secretary will contact the parent to inform you of days missed. Please note that tuition and fees are not refundable under any circumstance. Your growth is a direct reflection of your participation.

9. Release of Liability:

I hereby release Jeraldynne’s School of the Dance, it’s agents, and employees from all liability for personal injury, illness or property damages on or off Jeraldynne’s School of the Dance premises, whether or not caused by the negligence of Jeraldynne’s School of the Dance, its agents or employees.
